PERSONAL APPEARANCE

Exerts below are taken from the Code of Conduct, which is subject to revision without notification. It can be found on the School Communicator, School's website and in the Information Brochure issued on the learner's 1st day of school.

The following important principle's must be noted and adhered to:

- All learners who attend Glenstantia Primary School are ambassadors for the school and must, therefore, be correctly attired and groomed at all times. This includes any learner whilst attired in school uniform or out of uniform, and who can through whatever means whatsoever be identified as a learner at Glenstantia Primary School, whilst in any public place and during or after school hours.

- Sports uniform, as stipulated for each sporting code, is to be worn to matches/galas/events.

The following dress code and rules regarding personal appearance must be noted and adhered to:

Rules specific to Female Learners

- Skirts / skorts may not be more than 5cm above the kneecap.
- Earrings: Girls are allowed to wear small gold or silver stud earrings and a plain wristwatch. No other jewellery may be worn. No beads or adornments may be worn.
- Hair: Hair must be neat. No coloured or dyed hair is permitted. Braids or dreadlocks are not to be coloured. Hair that touches the collar, or is longer, must be tied back and clipped away from the eyes. Green, white or red ribbons, bobbles or hair bands may be used. No beads may be plaited into the hair. Long braids are regarded as loose hair and must be tied back. Hair may be layered and must have an even flow from long to short. No distinguishable lines that have been cut/shaved in, may be visible.
- Whether straight or curly, hair must be groomed and clean, must be neat and appropriate for a primary school learner.
- Nails should not be longer than the end of the fingers. Nail varnish is not permitted.

Rules specific to Male Learners

- Hair: Whether straight or curly must be groomed and clean, must be neat and appropriate for a primary school learner. Hair may not touch the ears or collars of any garment, (shirt, blazer or other garment). Hair may be layered if professionally cut, notwithstanding there may not be a discernible difference in hair length as it appears on the top of the head in relation to the sides of the head, i.e. the sides may not be shaved short in relation to the hair on the top of the head. There must be an even flow from long to short.
- No hair colourants or other products, i.e. gels or similar, may be applied to the learner's hair. The learner's hair colour must be natural.
- No "styles" are permitted, i.e. corn-rows, flip-up fringes, braids or dreadlocks, frizzed or teased out afro styles, modern fashion styles.
- Naturally curly hair must be cut short in order that it does not touch the ears or collars as applies to straight hair; similarly, the hair on top of the head must be of a similar length in relation to the hair on the sides of the head as previously stipulated.
- NB: Appropriate hair styles must be maintained at any function where the learner represents the school. Whether in school hours or after hours.
- Wrist watches only, may be worn with the school uniform. NO other jewellery may be worn.

Requests for exceptions on the grounds of certain religious symbols or cultural practices must be made in writing for consideration by the School Management Team.

Civvies Day Dress Code for Boys and Girls in all Grades:

- No T-Shirts with unsuitable logos
- No tattered / torn jeans or cut-off shorts
- No visible underwear with low slung jeans
- No fancy hairstyles
- No pajamas, gowns or slippers
